

Northampton Community College Paul & Harriett Mack Library

Mission Statement

The NCC library develops and maintains a centralized resource collection of print and non-print materials, as well as electronic resources, designed to support the goals and objectives of the college, the content of courses, the teaching methods of faculty, and the intellectual and cultural enrichment of its diverse community of faculty, staff and students. The library staff is committed to providing quality services, including information literacy instruction, to enrich and enhance the educational experience of all students regardless of their geographic location.
