WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR

Interested in working with children and youth

Patient, dependable, and positive

Comfortable supporting students in a school setting

Interested in education, human services, social work, psychology, or community engagement—or simply interested in making a difference in the lives of young people

No specific major or field of study is required.

WHY VOLUNTEER?

This opportunity provides NCC students with meaningful, hands-on experience working with elementary-aged students while helping support their academic success, confidence, and connection to their school community.

YOUR TIME CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

NCC STUDENT
VOLUNTEER
OPPORTUNITY

Make an Impact. Build Connections.
Support Our Students.

Fountain Hill Elementary School is seeking Northampton Community College (NCC) student volunteers to support our K–5 students through an after-school program focused on academic support, enrichment, mentorship, and positive relationship-building.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Provide homework help and academic support

Read with students and support literacy development

Assist with tutoring and small-group activities

Build positive mentoring relationships with elementary students

Support enrichment activities, games, and projects

Assist staff with structured after-school activities

VOLUNTEER REQUIREMENTS

Complete any required school/district volunteer clearances

Follow Fountain Hill Elementary and Bethlehem Area School District safety and volunteer procedures

Maintain appropriate professional boundaries when working with students

Commit to the agreed-upon volunteer schedule

Additional expectations and orientation information will be provided before volunteers begin.
