

JULY IS
DISABILITY PRIDE MONTH
&
THE 35TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

In celebration of Disability Pride Month and the 35th anniversary of the ADA, the Center for Community, Equity, and Inclusion & the NCC In/Visible Dis/Abilities Caucus have partnered to host a day of fun, learning, and commemoration. This month honors the history, achievements, and experiences of individuals with disabilities while raising awareness about disability rights and promoting inclusion and accessibility for all.

The month of July also commemorates the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) on July 26, 1990.
