

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Film Screening: "Keepers of the Way" Documentary followed by a Q&A Session.

In this intimate portrait told through the eyes of Lenape tribal leaders in Pennsylvania, a challenging spiritual journey unfolds to heal past wounds and keep a culture alive.

Over the course of a weekend, members of the Pennsylvania Lenape Nation perform healing ceremonies for the land affected by the walking purchase - a notorious event that changed the course of the tribe's future - and reveals the dark underbelly left out of history books.
