FRY BREAD!

Exactly what is Fry Bread? It is food, yes—but it is also time; it is family; it is cherished traditions; and it is so much more. The Bethlehem Catholic High School Peer Listeners introduce us to Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story by Kevin Noble Maillard. Taste real fry bread and demonstrate your talent by creating a Native American craft.

LLAMA LLAMA LOVES CAMPING!

Electronics are fun, but what happens when you step into the great outdoors? Join Cops 'n' Kids favorites Megan and Jessica as they share the story Llama Llama Loves Camping by Anna Dewdney. Discover the joys of “unplugging” and exploring nature. We will all make our own binoculars, go on a scavenger hunt, and wrap up with a cozy campfire-themed treat!
(appropriate for ages 3 and up)

LAWS OF MOTION

Calling all future scientists and inventors! Join the Liberty High School STEM Club as they share the story of Newton and Me by author Lynne Mayer. These talented young people will introduce us to the brilliant mind of Sir Isaac Newton—the incredible man who turned a falling apple into the Laws of the Universe. This curious thinker changed how we understand the world. Be part of some fun experiments that will get us all thinking!
(appropriate for ages 4 and up)

THANKSGIVING AND A MOUSE!

Thanksgiving leftovers are the best—and a little mouse agrees! The NCC Hospitality Group shares One Is a Feast for Mouse: A Thanksgiving Tale by Judy Cox. It is a fun story that gently reminds us to give thanks for the little things—even as little as a mouse. Come prepared to sample some cheese (like a mouse)!
