Course Description
New Media Production in Japan brings students to the city of Akashi in Hyogo prefecture in western Japan. Students will join a four-person student media team. Each team will cover a specific story or topic and will shoot video, edit, do voice-overs, conduct interviews, live vlog, and blog. This is an intense team-based and project based course that will allow students an opportunity to hone their media and communication skills while in Japan. Based out of Akashi, students will have the opportunity to explore much of western Japan including Kyoto, Kobe, Osaka, Hiroshima and surrounding areas. This program does not travel to Tokyo. This course will be capped at 12 students—submit your application soon!
