

Intensive Mandarin Language in

SHANGHAI, CHINA

Are you ready to learn Chinese in a four week intensive language study? Upon arrival you will take a placement test to assure that you are placed in the correct level of Chinese before you begin your study. Advanced students may select to study Business Chinese as an option other than conversational Chinese. You may also choose to take an elective course such as Chinese calligraphy or Chinese painting. This intensive language course may include online asynchronous sessions. There will be live – in person class sessions during your four week in country visit.

Course Description

Enroll now for this four-week intensive Mandarin language program in Shanghai! This unique summer program will immerse you in the language and culture of China and introduce you to one of the most dynamic cities in the world. Students will enroll in one of the most prestigious universities in the country and join hundreds of other students from around the world who have come to Shanghai to study Chinese. This program is open to anyone---from complete beginners to advanced language learners. This program offers students the opportunity to earn six modern language credits over the summer. Whether you are a new Mandarin speaker looking to start learning, or an intermediate speaker looking to accelerate your fluency, this program has courses for you. When you are not studying Chinese, you may choose to take an elective course such as calligraphy or painting. This course only runs every other year.
