

INTRODUCTION TO STUDY ABROAD: PARIS, FRANCE

The City of Light (La Ville Lumière)

Paris is the capital of France and some may say that it is the world center for fashion, food, and culture. Paris has something for everyone. From world class sports to world class cuisine and shopping.

Meander the local shops in the quartier Latin while experiencing the essence of all things French. This seven-week hybrid course includes online asynchronous sessions, live – in person class sessions, and a one week in country visit.

Instructor Info

Donna Acerra, Professor of Communication, loves to travel and explore new cultures. She has traveled extensively, with and without students, to increase her understanding of our world. A destination she returns to frequently is the Navajo Reservation in northeastern Arizona. Professor Acerra coordinates an intercultural exchange program with students in her Intercultural Communication course and students from Dine College in Tsaile, AZ.

Course Description

Paris---spend a week in this cosmopolitan capital and center for fashion, food, and culture! Students in this program will live with a French family. This homestay provides insights into Parisian life like no other program can. You will see some of the most important sites in the city. You will have the opportunity to tour the Louvre, home of the world's greatest artistic works, visit the Eiffel tower, and stroll down the Champs-Élysées. And, you will learn to navigate the city like a local and get a peek into the daily life a Parisian. This program is not to be missed! It is only offered every other year, and spaces will fill quickly.
